RE: Relative Working within Region

Dear Sir or Madam:

As the Regional Administrator for the Lafayette Region of the Department of Children and Family Services, I am the appointing authority over Child Support Enforcement, Economic Stability and Child Welfare. My daughter, Lauren E. Broussard, worked for Child Support Enforcement in Lafayette several years ago as a student worker and currently works in a job appointment for Child Support Enforcement in State Office (Baton Rouge). She has applied for a position in Child Support Enforcement in the Lafayette Region as this is her home parish.

In her line of supervision will be (1) the immediate supervisor; (2) the CSE manager; and (3) the Area Director and I supervise the Area Director. At no time would I make any decisions regarding the employment of my daughter, nor would I supervise her, as that would be a conflict of interest. Those matters could be handled by my supervisor, who also has appointing authority.

Is it possible for my daughter to continue working for Child Support Enforcement but within the Lafayette Region or is she forever barred from working in her home parish as long as I am the appointing authority in the Lafayette Region?

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Sandra A. Broussard
